

BE THE CHANGE...

the world is calling YOU...

Do you hear it? The Global Dialogue Center was created in response. It is a virtual gathering place for people throughout the world with a focus on leadership, professional and personal development. We hold a strong belief that people who are thinking, questioning, exploring new ideas, learning and spending meaningful time together are more effective leaders of organizations, communities, schools, governments and families across the world—as well as, being catalysts for the change we need to create a better world than we know today. The future is ours to create.

People, organizations and nations are looking for innovative ways to solve problems, develop skills, transform thinking, build confidence, inspire action and create new levels of meaning in life and work in a world that needs our attention.

OUR GOALS:

Creating a welcoming, stimulating gathering place for people to think, question, explore new ideas, learn and connect with others around the world in an environment that fosters mutual respect, understanding and personal leadership.

Bringing new innovations to online leadership, professional and personal development with an array of technology-based learning opportunities for the individual and for organizations that bear our premier Global Dialogue Center mark of distinction.

Expanding opportunities for inclusion throughout the world for all people with a special focus on bringing our brand of excellence to women's personal and professional development, leadership and mentoring.

We invite you to join us!

Debbe Kennedy
Founder, President and CEO Global Dialogue Center and Leadership Solutions Companies

“Let him that would move the world, first move himself.”
—Socrates

“Be the change you wish to see in the world.”
—Gandhi

“The torch has been passed to a new generation...”
—President John F. Kennedy

“Make your contribution, everything else is a distraction.”
—Peter F. Drucker

Learn how:
www.globaldialoguecenter.com

virtual events and podcasts

We're redefining the notion of what a "virtual event" is around the world. We've learned that people enjoy thinking, questioning, learning and exploring ideas, but how they want to participate takes many forms, including audio/podcasts programs, artistic self-learning exhibits, online dialogues, forums, blogs, seminars and other emerging opportunities for conversation and connection on common ground. Do you want to meet people that are changing the course of history? This is the place!

knowledge gallery

Visit our innovative gallery and take a self-guided tour. Our gallery is dedicated to connecting you to the world's wisdom. It is the home of ongoing self-learning exhibits that highlight the knowledge and wisdom of great minds, past and present. Each exhibit brings insight and artistic expression together for a unique learning experience. The Knowledge Gallery is also the home of collections of knowledge designed to bring an array of resources together on a focused topic of vital interest.

women in the lead

An innovative, welcoming virtual gathering place of distinction for women around the world—a place to learn, develop new skills, participate in conversation, expand your network, find valuable resources and get inspired in ways that will help YOU strengthen your leadership in your work, in your community and in your life—Visit our Women's Gallery, Women in the Lead INSPIRATION BLOG, audio programs, online seminars and more. www.globaldialoguecenter.com/women

blogs and forums

We invite you to join in the ongoing conversations with thought-leaders through our blogs and forums with a wide range of personal writings, commentary, perspective and inspiration reaching from current affairs and politics to deeper meaning in life and work to women leadership and the human side of life with a disability.

be the change

Great leaders and sages left their insight and instructions for us. Whether you are a leader in your business, organization, community, government or your family, the torch has been passed to all of us to make the world a better place for all people. We invite you to join us and discover how you can be the change right where you are.