

Celebrating the Centenary International Women's Day

1911-2011

15,000 women march through New York City demanding shorter work hours, better pay and voting rights.

1908

1909

First National Women's Day celebrated in United States.

The inaugural International Women's Day held and over one million women and men rally the cause.

1911

1975

Designated as 'International Women's Year' by the United Nations.

2000+

Afghanistan, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Burkina Faso, Cambodia, China, Cuba, Georgia, Guinea-Bissau, Eritrea, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Madagascar, Moldova, Mongolia, Montenegro, Nepal, Russia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uganda, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Vietnam and Zambia celebrate International Women's Day as an official holiday.

Annually, on March 8, thousands of events are held throughout the world to inspire women and celebrate achievements. A global web of rich and diverse local activity connects women from all around the world: political rallies, business conferences, government activities, networking events, local craft markets, theatric performances, parades and in our case, a global dialogue.